15. [ ] Spoke further with Mr. John Woodworth, in the Office of the Secretary of Defense (see Journal Addendum, 21 February 1967) concerning the reply to Congressman Joe Evins (D., Tenn.) on U.S. trade with USSR finding its way to Vietnam and that CIA has a report to this effect. Based on the advice of [ ] Chief, [ ]   STAT

STAT

[ ] I informed Mr. Woodworth that our people were sure that there was no such report, but that a machine run on this could not be completed until sometime next week. Mr. Woodworth said they wanted to state in their letter to Congressman Evins on this "there are no CIA reports indicating that U.S. exports to the USSR are being sent to Vietnam." I suggested that the language "we know of no CIA report" might be better and Mr. Woodworth agreed and said he would be back in touch if there was any problem on this.

16. ([ ] Kathy Thomas, from the office of Congressman Thaddeus Dulski (D., N.Y.), called wanting a copy of the Presidents' Crime Commission Report and I referred her to the Department of Justice as a possible source of a copy of the reports explaining that we were in no way involved.

17. [ ]   STAT
called to seek our advice on releasing certain non-attributable or overt documents to freshman Congressman David Pryor (R., Ark.) relating to youth organizations. In view of the abundance of the available material from current press sources, I recommended against the release of this information to Mr. Pryor and [ ]   STAT
